Dr. Papagiotas and Mr. Pesce

We the class of 2001 would like to give our thanks to you for four memorable years. Dr. Papagiotas came to our school our sophomore year and created a favorable environment that helped us prepare for the future. Throughout these years we have experienced the total spectrum of emotions which have helped us grow. We have learned tolerance, acceptance, responsibility, and most of all how to have fun. The path we are traveling is just beginning, but our memories here will not be forgotten.

In Loving Memory

A whirlwind of energy and good humor, Nancy Norton created a positive climate in the Main Office. Pleasant in her interaction with students and faculty, Nancy always assumed responsibility for her tasks above and beyond the call of duty. Even in the most stressful situations, Nancy could offer support, caring humor if needed to everyone in her midst. A conscientious worker, Nancy would follow every detail to completion and she never left a job unfinished.

Her support and caring came from the love and dedication she expressed for her own family. Nancy derived joy from her daily contacts, her friends and her family. Nancy's absence can only be relieved from the memories she has left her legacy.

We would like to thank you for the help you have given us these past two years. The process has been long and hard but the rewards have been well worth it. Through deadlines and a lot of rough drafts you have taught us how to be responsible, and also how to enjoy ourselves. We appreciate all the time and effort you have given, thank you.

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood, and I took the one less traveled by,
and that has made all the difference.
—Robert Frost, "The Road Not Taken,"
the four most devastating words you can hear. Let's be friends my friends—students—and faculty. Thank you for believing in me. I have tried to do my best. I hope it was enough. To the girls who have graced my life, thank you for with it as you I would still have no idea how to treat girls. This marks the beginning of the book chapters.

Circle of Friends

*Friends ... the people that are there for you no matter what Always pulling you out of that deep, lonely, rut
The ones that comfort you and ease all your pain
Showing you a rainbow after the rain
A circle of friends or maybe just one
That will always be there sharing the fun
With laughter and fights you'll always stay true
To those who have cared and been there for you You'll always have close friends that stay strong
No matter what may seem wrong*

*Through high school we may not have all spoken
But we all share a bond that cannot be broken
It's so hard to suddenly open up to another Especially if you do not really know each other It's a good feeling to meet someone new
And it is sad to know that high school is through
I wish we met sooner and had more years to share
But I am sure that we will all meet again somewhere
We have grown up before each other's eyes
It is so very hard to say our goodbyes
So now it is time for us to all part
But know that we all stay close to heart*

*Someday we will reunite to have some fun
For we are the class of 2001.*

Reflections

We are not the same persons this year as last; nor are those we love. It is a happy chance if we, changing, continue to love a changed person.

I can't believe that we would lie in our graves, wondering if we had spent our living days well, I can't believe that we would lie in our graves dreaming of things that we might have been.

Your life and my life flow into each other as wave flows into wave, and unless there is peace and joy and freedom for you, there can be no real peace or joy or freedom for me. To see reality — not as we expect it to be but as it is — is to see that unless we live for each other and in and through each other, we do not really live very satisfactorily; that there can really be life only where there really is, in just this sense, love.

Friendship is that hardest thing in the world to explain. It's not something you learn in school. But if you haven't learned the meaning of friendship, you really haven't learned anything.

Give me work to do. Give me health. Give me joy in simple things. Give me an eye for beauty. A tongue for truth. A heart that loves. A mind that reasons. A sympathy that understands. Give me neither malice nor envy. But a true kindness, And a noble common sense. At the close of each day give me a book, And a friend with whom I can be silent.

The book is closed, the year is done, The pages full of tasks begun. A little joy, a little care, Along with dreams, are written there. This new day brings another year, Renewing hope, dispelling fear. And we may find before the end, A deep content, another friend.

Promise you won't forget me, because if I thought you would, I'd never leave.

"And a woman said, Speak to us of Children. And the Prophet said:

*Your children are not your children.
They come through you but not from you,
And though they are with you yet
they belong not to you.*

*You may give them your love but not your thoughts,
For they have their own thoughts.

Greg,

We have watched you grow from a sweet, happy little boy, into a sensitive, funny and humane young man. We are so proud — and now as you begin your life's journey, please remember to:

Laugh at the world — it will see you through all the hard times.
Be yourself — the world will be a better place from your talent and humor.
Surround yourself — with people who love and appreciate you.
Guard against bitterness and intolerance — for they are not your heart.
And please, never forget the most important lesson of them all:

ALWAYS CALL YOUR MOTHER

Love, Mom and Dad

Another stage to roam,
Another world to conquer,
New places but still home.

We've tried to give you wings and roots,
We've tried to give you love,
And you have given us so much,
But what we're proudest of

Is how you've learned to be yourself,
To heed your special call,
A wondrous gift of love from God,
A blessing to us all.

Love,
Maria, Sandra, Mom + Dad

Andy

Follow your dreams and if you look back, we'll be right behind you

Dearest Denise,
Just yesterday we held you so softly to our hearts. Always joy, Always laughter, you gave us from the start. And today as we watch you, our hearts overwhelmed with pride, as you reach for your diploma our love's bursting inside. Always believe your heart. May God forever hold you in the palm of His hand.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Sean + Jen

Love,
Mom, Dad and Tim

He's Smiling Down From Heaven

Lorelle,
In my heart I know he's here to share in your big day.
He's smiling down from heaven and sending love your way. Remember how much he loved you and wished he could be here. He wanted to see you graduate but didn't have the years. Having him in your yearbook is another way he's here with you. I know how proud he is today, to see you made it through.

Congratulations Athas!
To Our Son + Brother
